

SENATE BILL 2550

By Tate

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 40-32-101, relative to expunction of criminal offenses.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 40-32-101(k)(1), is amended by deleting the following language:

Notwithstanding subsection (g), effective July 1, 2017, for purposes of this subsection (k), an "eligible petitioner" means a person who was convicted of no more than two (2) offenses and:

(A) Each of the offenses for which the petitioner seeks expunction are offenses that are eligible for expunction under subsection (g);

and substituting instead the following:

Notwithstanding subsection (g), effective July 1, 2018, for purposes of this subsection (k), an "eligible petitioner" means a person who was convicted of one (1) or more offenses and:

(A) Is seeking expunction of no more than two (2) offenses, and each of the offenses for which the petitioner seeks expunction are offenses that are eligible for expunction under subsection (g);

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 40-32-101(k)(4), is amended by deleting the language "Subdivisions (g)(3)-(6), (8), (10), (15), and (16) shall apply" and substituting instead the language "Subdivisions (g)(3)-(6), (8), (10), and (15)-(17) shall apply".

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2018, the public welfare requiring it.
